

Lilly Epstein Stotland

Lilly Epstein Stotland is President and Chief Executive Officer, co-owner and member of the Board of Directors of Vesco Oil Corporation, a third-generation family business founded in 1947. She joined the company in 2004 and under her leadership has spearheaded strategies to grow Vesco Oil through acquisitions, resulting in the geographic expansion of the company into four Midwest states. Prior to joining Vesco Oil, Lilly began her career as a Financial Analyst at Goldman Sachs in New York City. Lilly was named President of Vesco Oil in 2017, CEO in 2020, and is committed to keeping the company a family-owned business for future generations.

Lilly has been recognized as one of the most prominent, young business leaders in Michigan by dbusiness Magazine and Crain's Detroit Business. She was named to dbusiness Magazine's "Detroit 500: The Most Powerful Business Leaders in Metro Detroit", was a Crain's "40 Under 40" honoree, and was recently named one of Crain's "100 Most Influential Women." She was also recognized by Corp! Magazine as a Women Leadership in the Workplace honoree.

Lilly earned a Bachelor of Arts degree in Economics and graduated Cum Laude from Harvard College in 2000. She earned a Masters of Business Administration and graduated with distinction from the Ross School of Business at the University of Michigan in 2004.

Lilly and her husband Alex reside in Birmingham with their three children, Nathan, Elise and Don. Lilly and Alex are proud members of the Detroit Jewish community and Temple Beth El in Bloomfield Hills, where they are fifth generation members. Lilly has been a member of the Harvard Club of Detroit Board of Directors since 2004. Lilly was a longtime member of the Executive Board of the Anti-Defamation League, and is an Executive Board member of the Detroit Chapter of Young Presidents Organization. She has also been a repeat guest on the Family Business Forum on WJR radio.
